GETTING STARTED

This devotional series will help you reflect on One-Psalm-A-Day during your personal worship time with God. If you find personal worship to be a new concept or a challenging habit to get in to, there is no need to worry! This series will walk you through a step-by-step guide that will help you get started in spending quality time with God and His word!

Use this journal-type booklet to write down your thoughts, observations, and track your journey with God as you engage in His word. You will also find helpful prompts and questions that will help you look into your relationship and walk with God as you go along.

BOOK 2

GUIDE TO DOING PERSONAL WORSHIP

The Elements of P.R.A.I.S.E.

PAUSE & PRAY

Our nature is to be blind to spiritual things and we need God to make us spiritually sensitive to what He wants to teach us. The Psalms contain a prayer that would serve us well, “Open my eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of Your law” (Psalm 119:18). To help you pause and prepare your heart to worship, you may choose to sing or listen to a song.

READ THE TEXT

If you read the Bible randomly - a verse here and a verse there - it's almost certain that you will never really understand the major teachings of Scripture. Most of the Bible is meant to be read in paragraphs and sections. Chapter divisions are convenient section markers.

ASK QUESTIONS

Ask and answer observation questions to help you get at the facts. Use the 5 W's & H questions - Who? What? When? Where? Why? and How?

INTERPRET IN CONTEXT

Be careful that you don't interpret a word, phrase or verse in a way that isn't consistent with its context. Check your conclusions by asking yourself if the author would have intended his original audience to understand him the way you're interpreting him.

SUMMARIZE APPLICATION

A most useful exercise is to capture the main point(s) and personal application(s) of a section (whether a paragraph or a chapter). This forces you to think through the meaning of a passage and your response, rather than skimming through without much benefit. To help guide you to come up with a personal application, you may use the P.R.A.C.T.I.C.E. acrostic on the next page.

P – Promise to claim

Is there a promise from God applicable to you that you should hold on to?

R – Request to pray for

Is there a need or concern you should be praying for?

A – Attitude to change

Is there an attitude or character trait that you need to change?

C – Command to obey

Is there a direct command from God that He is asking you to follow?

T – Truth to believe

What truth have you learned and should believe in?

I – Insight about God

What does this passage tell me about God, Jesus Christ or the Holy Spirit? What is God like? What pleases Him and what does not?

C – Confession to make

What sin must you confess and repent from?

E – Example to follow and not to follow

Is there an example that you should avoid or a role model to emulate?

ENGAGE WITH GOD

Now, talk to God in response to what you have read. Ask Him to apply His Word to your heart; to give you understanding, faith, and obedience. If you are new to prayer, you can pray aloud or silently, but don't worry about fancy words. God is interested in the sincere expression of your devotion to Christ.

INTRODUCTION

The book of Psalms is a collection of 150 songs that served as the hymnbook of the Old Testament people of God. Poetic in form and largely addressed to God, the songs are also considered as prayers. These songs were collected over nearly a thousand years, from the time of Moses to the Babylonian captivity, with the majority of the psalms being attributed to King David.

The best way to read the Psalms is to make these ancient, inspired prayers our own by speaking them directly to God. Though our situation may not exactly be the same as that of the psalmist, we may still discover some parallels. We may also find ourselves identifying with and relating to the deep feelings and thoughts of the psalmist.

BOOK TWO OF THE PSALMS

Chapters 42-72

This collection of psalms, mainly written by David and the sons of Korah, is similar to the book of Exodus. Just as Exodus describes the nation of Israel, many of these psalms describe the nation as ruined and then recovered. As God rescued the nation of Israel, He also rescues us. We do not have to work out solutions first, but we can go to God with our problems and ask Him for help.
